The Wilmington Star of the 4th says:

"We had heard, but hoped it was not true, that the Second Regiment was very unjustly dealt with at Asheville. But there is hardly room for doubt, as all our Wilmington boys, and we suppose also all of the regiment, make the same statement of bad treatment in the awarding of prizes. We refer to this merely to say that if those having charge, desire to break up the whole organization, let this sort of treatment be tried a second time. The Second fairly won, we are assured, and ought to have had the prizes. The sentiment of the Asheville people and visitors was easily seen, and the splendid demonstration in behalf of the Second, more than paid them for the injustice done. No other regiment received a tithe of the consideration that was extended to the splendid regiment in Gray. Gen. Scales is reported as saying: 'Boys, stick to the gray.' We are astonished that there could have been any grounds for heart-burnings and complaints, and it is to be regretted that such grounds should have existed."

Richmond Aug. 3.—The governor has issued an order detailing about two hundred men from the various regiments to attend the funeral of Gen. U. S. Grant in New York, on the 8th inst.

The Gate City Guards of Atlanta, will attend General Grant's funeral in a body. It is commanded by Capt. Henry Jackson, a son of the minister to Mexico.

Ex-Senator Thurman declares that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for Governor in Ohio, this fall.

The criticism of a Kentucky six-footer after hearing Rev. Sam Jones at high bridge, was: "Great God Almighty, what a dandy little cuss."

INDIAN ITEMS.

Among the Peaceful Cherokee and Warring Apaches.
Tombstone, Ariz., July 28.—Apaches on the north boundary line have apparently broken up into small parties of two and three and upward, and are evidently trying to gain their reservation. This theory is sustained by the fact that they have committed few depredations this side of the line.

Five Apaches were seen twelve miles from this place on the Bishop road. They were dismounted by armed men with guns. Trade horses were probably stolen in the vicinity. They made no hostile demonstrations. A party is also known to be lurking in the Whetstone mountains, twenty-five miles west of this place.

Leut. Payson, with a detachment of troops, left Fort Huachuca for the Whetstone mountains, and will try to dislodge the Indians. Two Apaches came into Cochise, a small settlement on the line thirty miles from this place, and surrendered. They were nearly famished and had evidently been without food for several days. When questioned they claimed to be government scouts, but the statement is not believed, and the Indians will be held as prisoners until the truth is ascertained.

Reports reached here of scattering bands being seen at other localities, and that a collision will occur soon seems probable.

The Cherokees.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 28.—Intelligence received from Idaho territory indicates that the Cherokees are moving to have the leases made by Chief Bushyhead and other Cherokee officials to cattle syndicates abrogated. Over six million acres of land are covered by these leases. They were made without the consent of the people at large, and a majority of the Cherokees have been protesting since the public were acquainted with the fact of such steps having been taken.

The intention is to present the facts to President Cleveland in a memorial from the people and ask him to set aside the leases and drive the cattle men out. The rental secured by the leases is only a few cents per acre, while the lands enclosed comprise the best portion of the Cherokee territory.

The Cherokees allege that since the leases were made they have been beset by agents of the cattle kings, who desired to work up a sentiment favorable to selling large tracts of land to cattle companies; that cattle are ranging on land not under lease, but reserved for the Cherokees, and that altogether the cattle men are a disturbing element, and ought to be removed.

Old Squaw and Bucka.

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., July 28.—Parties just arrived from Sonora state that a company of Mexican citizens, led by the prefect of the town of Arizpi, discovered a squaw camp in the Pin Mountains, the latter part of last week. The camp was attacked and a number of squaws and a few old bucks were killed. Many of the former escaped by taking refuge in the mountains. They were undoubtedly the families of rangers trying to regain the reservation and were probably left behind with the intention of being taken in by the United States troops, which case they would have been returned to the reservation unharmed.

Sheridan's Return.

FR. RENO, I. T., July 28.—Having been at this post making an investigation into the Cheyenne trouble with a view to its eradication, Gen. Sheridan and his brother, Colonel Mike Sheridan, left here, and relays have been established between this point and Caldwell, Kansas, which place they expect to reach by 9 o'clock. Following a brief rest at Caldwell they will take the afternoon train, and expect to reach Chicago on the 31st inst., where the general will probably remain one day before proceeding to Washington. Special Inspector Armstrong accompanies the party.

RIEL'S TRIAL.

Nothing startling except that he wanted one hundred thousand dollars.

WINNIPEG, July 31.—In the Riel trial the remainder of the crown witnesses were examined and the prosecution closed. The evidence bore chiefly on the part taken by the accused in leading to rebellion and in raising the Half-Breeds and merchants of Duck Lake and Prince Albert. It gave the history of the early incidents of the rebellion, the brother of Riel's identified a number of documents in Riel's hand writing. Riel's cousin said the prisoner told him last December he claimed indemnity of one hundred thousand dollars from the Dominion for losses in the Red River rebellion and if he did not get it he would raise a rebellion. Drs. Ray, of Quebec, and Clarke, of Toronto, reached Regina and inquired into Riel's mental condition. They will be examined for the defense.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Fifty Passengers Thrown Into the Ditch.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 30.—The south-bound passenger train on the Chicago & Indianapolis (Air line) division of the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago road, with a Cincinnati sleeper attached, when rounding a curve one mile north of Delphi, ran into a derrick of fifteen cattle.

The engine and baggage car were thrown down the embankment and four other cars derailed. Baggage Master Robinson was badly hurt. Eight head of cattle were killed, and the engine is total wreck. There were fifty-nine passengers aboard, but none of them were hurt. Engineer Shea and his fireman went down with the engine, but escaped injury. The track will be cleared. The loss to the company is estimated at $40,000.

The State Librarian.

CINCINNATI, July 31.—Rev. Dr. Pierson is at the Grand hotel. He is the state librarian appointed by Gov. Hoosier last winter. There was much criticism of this appointment, which was made to please President Cleveland. During the campaign Rev. Pierson was one of Cleveland's defenders against the charges of immorality. As a preacher and companion of the candidate's father his defense had some weight. He is from Toledo, O., and up to last fall had always voted the republican ticket. He has quite a reputation as an author, and is much devoted to literary work.

Heavy Failure.

BOSTON, July 29.—C. N. Carter & Co., wholesale and retail dealers in ladies' cloaks and suits, No. 57 Bedford street and 35 Winter street, have failed. Liabilities between one hundred thousand and one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Violents Arrested.

MOBILE, Ala., July 29.—The duel between W. J. Walker and Samuel J. Dalton, of Aberdeen, Miss., was frustrated by the arrest of the parties at Starkville. They were on their way to Memphis to arrange for a fight.

Nine Thousand Idle.

FALL RIVER, Mass., July 29.—The first week of the shut down has begun. Twenty-two of the fifty-four mills in this city are silent and 8,400 operatives are idle.

Cancer Cured.

Mrs. Oliver Hardman, an old resident of Walton county, and a lady of culture and prominence, has this way of the treatment of cancer with Swift's Specific.

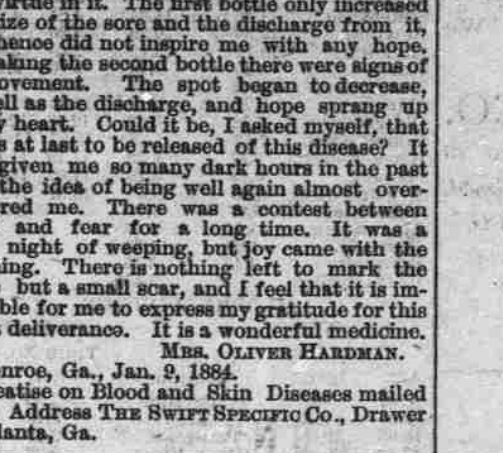

Over fifteen years ago a cancer made its appearance on her face. It was treated with plaster, and the cure came out. The place healed up after some time, and seemingly my face was well. However, in a few years it returned again with more violence than ever. It gave me a great deal of pain. The former remedy seemed to do it no good. Knowing the disease to run in the family, having had one sister die with cancer, I became seriously apprehensive of my condition. It continued to increase in size and violence, I almost gave up all hope of ever being cured. The physicians advised the use of the knife and cauterization. This was more than I could bear, and refused to have it operated upon in that way. All other remedies were used, but the cancer continued to grow worse. The pain was excruciating, and my life was a burden. In this extremity my son, Dr. Hardman, recommended me to try Swift's Specific. It was the last resort, but I was so prejudiced against the use of patent medicines, and especially this one, that I hesitated some time. At last I gave my consent, not believing there was any virtue in it. The first bottle only increased the size of the sore and the discharge from it, and hence did not inspire me with any hope. On taking the second bottle there were signs of improvement. The spot began to decrease, as well as the discharge, and hope sprang up in my heart. Could it be, I asked myself, that I was at last to be released of this disease? It has given me so many dark hours in the past that the idea of being well again almost overpowered me. There was a contest between hope and fear for a long time. It was a long night of weeping, but joy came with the morning. There is nothing left to mark the place but a small scar, and I feel that it is impossible for me to express my gratitude for this great deliverance.

It is a wonderful medicine.
